

PUBLIC LEDGER

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1937.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1939.

MAYSVILLE, KY., SATURDAY, DECEMBER 23, 1905.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

SANTA IN BALT LAKE.

To a thrifty Mormon household came the patron saint of Yule; He was puffing like an engine, he was laden like a mule, For he knew a row of stockings such as nowhere else is seen 'Would be yawning there before him in the home of Elder Green. So he shoved his pack ahead of him and started down the flue. While he muttered, "This is something that I hate like smoke to do."

Then he followed with reluctance through the Smeety, smuddy air, Quickly landing where the hosiery was hung in many a pair.

There were papa's socks and twenty pairs of lengthy, wisely hose; There were socks for Eddie, Willie, for Elphot and Mose; There were stockings of Natilda's, Esmeralda's and Susanne's; There were Charley's hose and Molly's, Cora Belle's and little Dan's;

Amariyllis, George, Alphonso, Peter, Joseph, Maude, Eugene, Arthur, Lizzie, James, Amelia, Mary, Frances and Irene. Briggie, Reed, Lucille, Clorinda, Arethusa, John, Estelle, Mattie, Lucifer, Elfrida—from his lips their titles fell.

But about the shelf there dangled other hose whose owners' names He could not recall to save him as he watched the dying flames. Seven pairs, all baby sizes, each in age not quite a year— "Gee!" cried Nick, "Been something doing since the last time I was here. And I brought a stock of rattles and a lot of teething-rings— Ursh always gives a market for such kindergarten things. From 'trace aside!' she ever has discreetly held aloof, And there's not a home in Zion free from stork-tracks on the roof."

—Judge.

THE LEDGER delights in obliging its friends. It prints "Help Wanted," "Situations Wanted," "Lost" and "Found" notices free of charge; and as it costs you nothing for such service, don't you think it is as little as you can do to write the copy and either bring or send it to the office?

If you have an item of news, please send it up The Ledger. Telephone 33, and let us have it.

Monday is Fleming County Court day.

See the Kentucky Souvenirs at Clooney's. Mr. William Viceroy is in charge of the Western Union Telegraph Office during the absence of Mr. C. R. Wagner.

The American Association of Paupers and Expositions has set the time for holding the next Kentucky State Fair for September 17th to 22d.

Special low prices on Toilet and Manicure Pieces in Sterling Silver; Comb and Brush from $5 to $15. Shaving Sets, Sterling Silver Suspenders, Puffboxes, Soap Boxes, Cigarette and Cigar Cases. P. J. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

The barber shops in this city will close on Monday at noon, so if you want a clean shave on Christmas you had better have your face scraped early in the day.

We always get the newest. See our detachable handled Umbrellas; handle can be taken off and carried in a trunk. For ladies and gentlemen. From $5 to $25. P. J. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

Eight cars were derailed and over $1,100 worth of damage was done to freight and rolling stock of the C. and O. just below Huntington one evening this week. One of the cars was loaded with eggs, which were almost completely demolished.

Mrs. Martha M. Henney of Aberdeen received, through James S. Wood, General Agent of this city, a check in settlement of policy for $1,000 carried by her late husband, Mr. Henry H. Henney, who died suddenly recently at the C. and O. Station at South Ripley.

We have made a great cut in price of Cut Glass Bowls, Vases, Pitchers, Water Bottles, Tumblers, Lemonade Glasses, Sherbet Glasses, Sugar and Creams and everything in the line of Cut Glass. See our Wine Sets. P. J. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

County Clerk C. L. Wood returned yesterday morning from a five weeks stay in Southern California, the time being divided between Santa Ana and Los Angeles. In the latter city he met Messrs. H. B. Wall and Thornton H. Cox of this city. Mr. Wood says there is no place on earth like Kentucky, and especially old Maysville. He received a warm welcome on his home coming by his friends, and that about includes everybody in the city and county.

A NICE XMAS GIFT. Shares in the fortieth series of the old reliable Mason County Building and Saving Association. Apply to T. M. Hoeflich, Secretary, or R. K. Hoeflich, Treasurer.

Mrs. Fristoe, who has been ill for a week, is able to be out.

Mr. Allan D. Cole left last afternoon for Columbus, O., to attend a meeting of the Board of Trustees of Kenyon College, of which he is a member.

That was an extremely mean fellow who stole Wat Neal's quarter of beef from his smokehouse in the West End Thursday night. Wat and his neighbors had pooled in and bought a fine beef between them for Christmas meat, and now Wat's portion has disappeared and some ungrateful fellow will enjoy its juicy steaks.

NARROW ESCAPE

Young Engineer Got Caught in Machinery Yesterday

Yesterday, while attempting to put on a belt at the Maysville Foundry and Machine Company, John Moran, the young Engineer, had a very narrow escape from being killed.

He was caught by the belt and wound around the main shaft.

Sherman Griffith, a machinist, being close at the time, heard the young man scream and ran and stopped the engine just in time to save him from being ground to pieces, while Daniel Daly and Edward Gleason succeeded in getting him loose from the shaft.

Board of Education

The Board of Education met last evening, President Sallee in the Chair. Present: Sallee, Poyntz, Hutchins, Russell, Nesbitt, Calvert and Schwartz.

The usual salaries of the teachers, Secretary and Treasurer, together with some claims and accounts, were allowed.

President Sallee called upon Prof. Reynolds to state the condition of pupils in Miss Strawder's room. Prof. Reynolds stated that the highest enrollment in her room the past four months was 75. The highest daily attendance was 64. The average daily attendance was over 58. The Committee having this matter in charge asked further time, which was granted, the Chairman voting no. It will be remembered that the Board some time ago reduced the number of colored teachers, and President Sallee at the time predicted that this reduction would produce a crowded condition of pupils in that school. The colored people have steadily remonstrated against this condition, but for some unexplained reason the Board has persistently refused to elect another teacher.

Pending a discussion of non-resident tuition, things took a personal turn and a hot war of words followed between Secretary Curran and member Schwartz. Other members became more or less involved in the angry debate, and it looked for some time like the session was bound to end in a scrap. A motion to adjourn was hastily carried, but the crimination and recrimination continued until cooler heads suggested going down the street, which was done.

The closing session of the Board could not be called very brilliant, but it certainly was warm enough to interest the newspaper reporters. It is a pity that the patrons of the Public Schools did not see the Board in session last night, as it would have demonstrated the importance of the public paying closer attention to the schools.

In retiring from the Board of Education President Sallee claims a large share of credit for the following reforms effected during his four years administration—

First—The consolidation of the Girls' High School and the Boys' High School into one school, called the Maysville High School.

Second—The fixing of a standard of qualification that requires every applicant that applies for a school to hold a teachers' certificate from the County or State Board of Examiners, according to the grade taught.

Third—An uniform course of study for each grade.

Fourth—An uniform list of questions for each grade on the final examination at the close of each term in January and June.

Fifth—Creation of the office of City Superintendent of Schools.

Sixth—A four years course of study in the High School.

Seventh—An Advisory Board for the Colored Schools composed of colored men.

Eighth—A general sentiment in favor of making the Public Schools of Maysville good enough for everybody's children.

THE HOME STORE.

Just at this time our uppermost thought reverts to the many past years we have been favored by Maysville's and Mason county's inhabitants. Kentucky's Mercantile History does not show an instance of another clothing house that has so "successfully," and at the same time so "satisfactorily" to its patrons, pursued an uninterrupted almost half century business career. Do you wonder that we are thankful to you? Yes, more than words can express. As this is our last "ad" before the 25th, we will add that we wish everybody a Happy Christmas, a Happy, Prosperous New Year and many following ones.

Very truly yours,

SOME one said that a "dead" town was one that did not have its streets torn up all the time. This puts Maysville right up head in the live class.

THAT contributors of both "solids" and "liquids" may not be inconvenienced by finding the office closed early Christmas morning, the Editor has kindly consented to "receive" during the entire afternoon of Saturday. Such self-sacrificing course will no doubt meet with generous approval.

FOLLOWING the usual custom, THE LEDGER will not be printed Monday. The faithful employees deserve the holiday, and here's hoping that each one may have a bountiful dinner and a proper appetite. The same wish goes out to every patron of the paper, with the prayer for many returns of the sublime anniversary.

ONE of Maysville's enterprising correspondents recently told his paper and its steen thousand eager readers that a C. and O. train struck a plank, on the other end of which a man was roosting. On being struck, the plank did the catapult act, throwing the rooster plump-sock over the top of the train, landing him in the river several hundred feet away! Even the most devoted and conscientious students of MUNCHAUSEN agreed that this grazed the limit; but now comes the Ewing correspondent of The Fleming Gazette with one that makes the Maysville story look like seventeen cents—

"A snake swallowed fourteen ducks belonging to Mrs. HANLEY's mother. The snake was decapitated, and the ducks marched out, as happy as if from a pool of water."

THE fellow who "knows" that GOEBEL was shot with a Marlin rise has been found again.

THE Louisville Herald, in the course of an able article, says it is pleasing to see Independent Democrats take firm stand for the honor of Kentucky in the matter of a proposed statue to Senator GOEBEL to be placed at the expense of this state in the Nation's Hall of Fame at Washington. The Owensboro Inquirer, a strictly Democratic newspaper, rightly says of that despotic politician:

"He possessed not a single characteristic of the great man, except determination to achieve his ends."

"Magnanimity is a part of the great man. He would scorn success attained by such means as GOEBEL used and permitted to be used in the Music Hall Convention, for instance."

"Let us hear no more of GOEBEL in this connection. If his worshippers want to continue their idolatry, much of which is as insincere as GOEBEL was insincere, let them do it, but let not the great majority of the people of Kentucky suffer for their idolatry."

Well said, adds The Herald. Kentucky has suffered very grievously in National standing by the association of its name with Goebelism and Goebelistic methods. The late WILLIAM GOEBEL stood for a despotism, with himself as chief tyrant, that had crushed Kentucky by depriving her of capital, enterprise, progress and population. Kentucky must disassociate herself absolutely from all that is implied by Goebelism. We need capital and enterprise. We need population and progress. These we can have by a large-minded, clean-handed, broad-gauged system of state politics.

WHAT THE TRAMP WANTED.

Once a tramp went up to the back door of a house and knocked, says The San Francisco Chronicle. A lady came to the door.

"Please, mum, could you do a little sewing for me?" said the tramp.

"Yes, with pleasure," answered the lady. "What sewing would you like to have me do for you?"

"I have a button here; if you will please sew a pair of pants on to it, I'll be very much obliged."

Desirable Gifts!

December is a perplexing month, but we believe the solution of many holiday troubles can be found by seeing what we have. The goods we call holiday goods are best of all gifts because they are mainly things that are desirable at any season—a little finer and a little more of them than we regularly carry, but all sensible gifts.

A MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR.

May this greeting find you surrounded by all the joys and comforts that your labors so richly deserve, and we sincerely hope that the coming Xmas and New Year may be for you even more enjoyable and happy than those that have passed. At this season of jollity, mirth and good cheer we want to take the opportunity to thank you most heartily for the many favors that you have bestowed upon us during the past year, and we assure you should you kindly extend these courtesies throughout the coming year we will do our utmost to see that our business relations shall exist in the most pleasant manner, and to further see that our satisfactory dealings of the past will be perpetuated and increased for many years to come. Again extending our best wishes to you most heartily for health, happiness and prosperity, we remain, very truly your friends,

The streetcars, to accommodate late Christmas shoppers, will make their regular runs until 10 o'clock tonight.

A colored slight of hand performer named John H. Moore gave an exhibition at Washington Thursday night, and among the number present was Frances Higgins. John and Frances made eyes at each other, and the result was that they came to this city together, procured license and were married last night by Rev. P. T. Gorham, all within about twelve hours. Moore must be a man of quick actions.

The entertainment at the First Baptist Church last evening in the form of a cantata was fairly well attended, notwithstanding the miserable weather. Aside from being the usual Christmas entertainment of the Sunday-school, the meeting was made the time for donating food to be used in the dinner for the poor next Monday. That the responses were most liberal was manifested in that two barrels and three good-sized boxes of provisions were brought last night, to be turned over today to the ladies having the dinner in charge.

HAPPY WOMEN.

Plenty Of Them in Maysville, and Good Reason For It

Wouldn't any woman be happy. After years of backache suffering, Days of misery, nights of unrest, The distress of urinary troubles, She finds relief and cure? No reason why any Maysville reader Should suffer in the face of evidence like this: Mrs. Lizzie Burns, living on the Blue Rue Turnpike, West End, Maysville, Ky., says: "My opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills which I expressed through our newspapers in the spring of 1900 has not altered. I value this preparation more highly today than I did when I gave my first testimonial. Before I got Doan's Kidney Pills at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore I was troubled with severe spells of backache and kidney complaint, which came on every three or six months, and there were times when I was confined to my bed and rendered almost helpless. The quick and decided benefit I received from Doan's Kidney Pills was wonderful. I have noticed slight returns of backache since, but an appeal to Doan's Kidney Pills has never failed to quickly and positively check the trouble. In every case I know among my friends when Doan's Kidney Pills have been used the results have always been satisfactory."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take as substitute.
